NEW FUNDS AT YALE DIVINITY SCHOOL

THE LEANDER E. KECK SCHOLARSHIP honors the former Yale Divinity School dean and current Winkley Professor Emeritus of Biblical Theology and Fellow of Silliman College. Keck, one of the world's foremost New Testament scholars, received his Ph.D. from Yale University in 1957 and went on to teach at Wellesley College, as well as Vanderbilt and Emory universities, before returning to Yale. The new scholarship was initiated with a pledge by F. Lane Heard III, a member of the Yale Divinity School Board of Advisors and partner in the Washington DC law firm of Williams and Connolly.

THE SLAUGHTER FAMILY FUND was established through a generous gift from Alexander H. Slaughter, who received his undergraduate degree from Yale in 1960. He serves as a senior warden at St. James Episcopal Church in Richmond, Virginia. The fund is unrestricted and will allow YDS to address needs ranging from financial aid to building maintenance and research initiatives.

Carol Pinkham Oak '85 M.Div. and husband Jeffrey C. Oak '85 M.Div., '86 S.T.M. have established THE OAK
