

POSTED ADVERTISEMENTS FOR ASSISTANT/ ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS

ASSISTANT PROFESSORS OF ENGLISH

The Yale English Department is now appointing all assistant professors under Yale's new tenure-track appointments system. This year the department is seeking two assistant professors in the following fields: literature of the Long Eighteenth Century (British, American, or both); and Postcolonial or World Anglophone Literature (including but not limited to South Asian, African, diasporic, Caribbean). Yale University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer. Yale values diversity among its students, faculty, and staff and strongly encourages applications from women and underrepresented minorities. Please send a letter of application clearly indicating your field of specialization, your c.v., a two-page dissertation abstract, dossier, and a 25-page writing sample to Michael Warner, Chair, Department of English, Yale University, P.O. Box 208302, New Haven, CT 06520-8302. Applications should arrive by November 1, 2009.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF ETHNIC AMERICAN LITERATURE

The American Studies Program and the department of English Language and Literature intend to make a non-tenured joint appointment beginning July 1, 2010 in any area of ethnic American Literature at the rank of Assistant Professor in Yale's new tenure-track system. Ph.D. preferred. Yale University is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer. Yale values diversity among its staff, students, and faculty and strongly encourages applications from women and underrepresented minorities. Please send a letter of application, your c.v., a two-page dissertation abstract, dossier, and a 25-page writing sample to: Ethnic American Search Committee, Department of English, Yale University, P.O. Box 208302, New Haven, CT 06520-8302. Application deadline: November 1, 2009.

ASSISTANT/ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS OF AFRICAN AMERICAN LITERATURE

The Departments of African American Studies and English Language and Literature intend to make one or more non-tenured joint appointments beginning July 1, 2010 in any area of African American Literature at the rank of Assistant or Associate Professor in Yale's new tenure track system. Ph.D. preferred. Yale University is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer. Yale values diversity among its staff, students, and faculty and strongly encourages applications from women and underrepresented minorities. Please send a letter of application, your c.v., a two-page dissertation abstract, dossier, and a 25-page writing sample to: African American Joint Search Committee, c/o Yale University English Department, P.O. Box 208302, New Haven, CT 06520-8302. Application deadline: November 1, 2009.