

2008-09 GRADUATE STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS Registered with the Office of Student Life

The Academia Nuts

academia.nuts@gmail.com

An all female a cappella group which performs at least once a semester and rehearses weekly.

Christians on Campus

This Club is an association of Yale students, faculty, staff and Yale alumni, who have a common interest in exploring and studying the Bible. Although most of the founding members are Christians, any Yale student sharing the common interest, regardless of his or her religious belief or lack of any, are eligible to be members. Weekly Bible study (Thur. 4-5 pm) in Room 203 at OISS (421 Temple Street).

Citations

www.yale.edu/citations

The Citations is Yale Graduate School's only coed a cappella singing group.

(Yale) Early American Historians

<http://www.yale.edu/history/gradstudents/working-groups.html>

Yale Early American Historians (YEAH) is a graduate student-run organization at Yale University that brings together those in the Yale community who are interested in colonial, revolutionary, and early national American history to discuss works in progress, converse with specialists in the time period, and explore new insights in the field.

(Yale) Energy Club

john.super@yale.edu

The Yale Energy Club's goal is to collaborate with existing energy and energy-related organizations at Yale to create a unified front representing graduate, professional, post-doctoral, and undergraduate students to make Yale a global leader in energy. Interdisciplinary cooperation, networking with Yale alumni in the energy sector, and the promotion of energy education and energy-related issues will constitute our primary activities.

German Club

www.yale.edu/germanclub

Home of all German-speaking graduate, undergraduate and professional students and post-docs, staff and friends. The German Club provides a platform for the German-speaking community by organizing social and academic events and by keeping our members informed about resources, opportunities and regional events of interest.

(Yale) Graduate Christian Fellowship

www.yale.edu/ygcf

YGCF is a group of Christian students in the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences at Yale. The purpose is to be a community of Christian scholars that integrates the life of faith and the life of the mind and that bears witness to the gospel of Christ.

(Yale) Graduate Student Rugby Football Club

www.yale.edu/gradrugby

The Yale Graduate Student Rugby Football Club (YGSRFC) was created in 2004/2005 by two MBA students from the Yale School of Management. Currently, professional and graduate students comprise the team. Beginners and experienced players are welcome to play. The team's goals now are to allow experienced players to continue playing rugby, and to allow new players to learn. This will bring students from different schools together, and provide a positive recreational and social outlet for all students at Yale.

(Yale) Mexican Student Association

<http://www.yale.edu/ymso/index.html>

The mission of the Yale Mexican Student Organization is to create more awareness and visibility about Mexican traditions, culture, political and social issues at the university. The organization also aims to provide a home away from home for Mexican students at Yale.

Rivendell Graduate Organization

The Rivendell Graduate Organization (RGO) exists to advance the integration of Christian faith and learning to facilitate connections between Christian graduate students and student organizations at Yale. RGO is affiliated with the Rivendell Institute.

Scientists and Engineers for America, Yale Student Chapter

www.yale.edu/sea

The mission for our chapter is to educate the public about scientific policy and promote political advocacy in the scientific community in order to hold representatives accountable for the positions they take on science issues. We want to promote debate and evidence-based decision making at the local and national level.

SAGA (South Asian Graduate/ Professional Association)

www.yale.edu/saga

SAGA is the forum for South Asian Graduate Students/Professionals. The aim is to promote South Asian Culture in and around Yale campus and foster friendship and interaction among those interested about South Asia.

University Church Graduate Student Deacons

www.yale.edu/chaplain/church

The University Church Student Deacons develop and participate in fellowship opportunities, community service projects, and worship leadership at the University Church in Yale.