

The IP Alumni Newsletter

For further information visit our website at www.yale.edu/ip
Edited with segments by Heather Robinson '10

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Thanks to all the IP alumni who made it out to my wedding on September 2 in Houston -- I was so touched by the turnout and hope everyone had a wonderful time—Averill Harrington '03

I'll probably be spending the foreseeable future (at least until the end of 2008) in the Boston area. Look me up if you're there. Hope to see all the fellow old fogies at the Game --David Ruscoll '04

Nico Dragojlovic has taken a leave of absence from academia, and is currently touring Kazhakstan with his ballroom dancing partner, Bojangles the Lobster. He will be visiting the Borat Sagdiyev Museum while in country --Nico Dragojlovic '03

My wife Christine & I moved to San Francisco in 2004 after I finished business school at Columbia. My uncle and I started Diamond Investment Properties, and we've kept ourselves busy by developing and selling two new residential communities and buying and repositioning existing office buildings in the Bay Area. Any IPs traveling through San Fran are invited to my place to share a bottle of wine and catch up! I can be reached at andrew@diamondprops.com --Andrew Diamond '99

Haninah is living in Washington, DC and has a couch to offer to any Ipsters past or present who happen to be passing through-- Haninah Levine '05

This September I faked a heart attack to get my South Bronx fifth-graders to pay attention in class. Impossible is nothing. --Maureen Miller '06

theJenny ought be poked more often --Goran Lynch '06

So lovely to have Drunk Goran and less drunk Jenny at the toasting session. I haven't had that much fun at a party (IP after party or otherwise) in a long long time. It made me realize how much I truly miss the alumni, the class of 2006 and 2005 with whom I was able to become so close.-- Alex Charrow '07

Picture taken from Averill Harrington's wedding. Congratulations to the bride and groom.

If you have pictures you would like included in the next alumni newsletter please email: Alexandra.Charrow@yale.edu

Executive Board, Fall 2006

Chairman: Alexandra Charrow
 Vice Chairman: Noah Mamis
 Chief Whip: Sam Bagg
 Secretary: George London
 Treasurer: Rachel Bayefsky
 SAAAC: Eric Purington

GENERAL INFORMATION

THE INDEPENDENT PARTY

Harvard Yale Game

This year, the IP will be hosting an alumni event at the Bombay Club of Cambridge prior to the game.

Who: IP students and Alums

Where: the Bombay Club (57 JFK Street Harvard Square, Cambridge, MA). After-party to follow in a location TBA.

Contact: Please RSVP To Eric.purington@yale.edu if you plan on attending.

Cost: $15.00 per person plus drinks

When: 9:30 PM, Nov. 17th

Resolutions Past and Present

1. Organized religion is a threat to democracy
2. The democrats would do a better job
3. Terrorism is never justified
4. You know you like it (joke)
5. The Democrats would do a better job
6. There should be no legal drinking age
7. The US should guarantee universal health care
8. America needs the feminist movement
9. Satire should have no bounds
10. Yale admissions should be an intellectual meritocracy

The YPU

The YPU has had a string of excellent, eminent speakers debate with the student body and address a number of relevant political issues. With Roger Low (Chairman of the IP, Spring of 06) as President, we've seen the likes of William F. Buckley Jr., Reverent Al Sharpton, Governor Dukakis, and Justice Scalia. Dennis Ross will be speaking before the YPU November 28th and all alums are welcome.

IP Freshman Geoffrey Shaw '10 pictured with Justice Antonin Scalia

Social Events

Toasting:

The IP Descended upon Mory's along with two illustrious Alumni (Jenny Rost '06 and Goran Lynch '06). We Toasted. We drank. We had a joyous time. Our next toasting session will take place on Friday, December 8th. All Alumni are welcome

Nytrip:

Guest 1: Jim Kramer of CNBC's Mad Money
 Guest 2: Rudolfo de la Garza of Columbia University and member of Council on Foreign Relations
 Guest 3: Lockhart Steele, Managing editor of Gawker Media

Dinner with Brad Lipton '05

Yale Club with Fipp Avlon '96 and Maureen Miller '06. Drinks were had and politics was discussed with the formidable speech writer and TFA teacher.