Book-In-Progress Workshop

Observing Norms and Interests: Explaining International Election Monitoring (working title)

Note: There will be no formal presentation of the material. Participants are encouraged to read the manuscript in advance.

Friday February 20, 2009

8:30-9:00, Continental breakfast and coffee

9:00-9:15 Introductions and overview

Session I: 9:15 - 10:30, Chapter 1, “Introduction”
Discussant: Duncan Snidal

Session II: 10:30 - 12:00 Chapter 2, “A Theory of Unintended International Norms”
Discussant: Kenneth Schultz

Lunch 12:00 - 1:00, Luce 203

Session III: 1:00-2:15 Chapter 3, “Why Leaders Invite Observers”
Discussant: Jon Pevehouse

Session IV: 2:15-3:30 Chapter 4, “Direct Fraud Deterrence as a Consequences of Election Observation” and Chapter 5, “Strategic Manipulation, Observer Response, and the Consequences of International Criticism”
Discussant Chapter 4: TBD
Discussant Chapter 5: Susan Stokes

Coffee, 3:30-3:45, move downstairs to Luce room 103

Session V: 3:45-5:00 Chapter 6, “Conclusion”
Discussant: David Lake