

The Program on ORDER, CONFLICT AND VIOLENCE
Spring 2008 Speaker Series

DATE	SPEAKER	AFFILIATION	TITLE
16-Jan	Andreas Wimmer	UCLA	Ethnic politics and armed conflict, 1946-2005. A Configurational Approach
23-Jan	Ussama Makdisi	Rice University	Understanding Sectarianism in the Middle East: A Historical Perspective
25-Jan	Samuel Bowles	Santa Fe Institute/University of Siena	The Coevolution of War and Parochial Altruism
30-Jan	William Reno	Northwestern University	Explaining Patters of Violence in Collapsed States
8-Feb	Stephen Ellis	Leiden, Netherlands	The Mutual Assimilation of Elites in Twentieth-Century Liberia
13-Feb	Christine Cheng	University of Oxford	A Theory of Extralegal Groups- Evidence from Liberia
20-Feb	Zachariah Mampilly	Vassar College	Warlords, Bandits, Embryonic States or Anti-State Political Orders: What is a Rebel Government?
27-Feb	Steve Shewfelt	Yale University	Political Participation and Post-War Reconstruction: Micro-evidence from Indonesia
29-Feb	Jason Lyall	Princeton University/ Olin Fellow, Harvard University	How Ethnicity Shapes Insurgent Violence: A Matched Analysis of "Sweep" Operations in Chechnya
5-Mar	Kristin Bakke	Belfer Center, Harvard University	Separatist Struggles and Center-Region Relations in Chechnya, Punjab, and Quebec
26-Mar	Artur Zimmerman	University of Sao Paulo, Brazil	Disentangling the Brazilian Agrarian Violence: Family farms as a viable solution?
02-Apr	Peter Andreas	Brown University	Blue Helmets and Black Markets: The Business of Survival in Besieged Sarajevo
16-Apr	Ashutosh Varshney	University of Michigan	Sparks and Fires: Revisiting the Role of the State in Ethnic Violence
22-April	Jóhanna Kristín Birnir	CIDCM -University of Maryland	MAR: Correcting the selection bias
23-Apr	Ryan Sheely	Yale University	Community Governance and Patterns of State Authority in Rural Kenya
25-Apr	Amelia Hoover & Meghan Lynch	Yale University	Qualities of Quantities: On Collecting Violence Data in Colombia
7-May	Nawreen Sattar	Yale University	Explaining Political Party Violence
9-May	José Luis Ledesma	Yale University	Violence Beyond Politics?: Anticlerical persecution in the Spanish Civil War, 1936-1939

Wednesday meetings are at 6pm in Room 119, 8 Prospect Place. Friday meetings are at 12pm.