We are a small non-profit publishing entity, and an interdisciplinary academic body within Yale University. We are not a part of Yale Press, which is a separate publishing organization associated with Yale. We edit, publish and market our three small monograph series directly out of our academic office. Brochures and/or inventory lists with ISBN are available on request or online at <http://www.yale.edu/seas/Monographs.htm>.

Our Vietnam Series is no longer publishing new volumes, although inventory of previously published books remains available for purchase. Scanned texts of out-of-print volumes are available as downloadable pdf files, linked to our Vietnam Publications web site (<http://www.yale.edu/seas/Vietpubs.htm>).

Books in our Southeast Asia Monograph Series are published at variable intervals and variable retail prices throughout the year (2-4 monographs per year on average). Standing Orders, whereby volumes are shipped and invoiced automatically upon publication, can be acquired on request. Recent books are published in both paperback and hard/cloth cover editions. Unless otherwise indicated, cloth bindings are library serial version: no jacket, no cover photo; blank with foil stamp on spine.
