TOTAL AMOUNT FOR 2009-2010		$		The outside scholarship amount is considered in Student Effort described on page 2, since Yale policy allows outside merit scholarships ( not including entitlement grants and tuition benefits ) to first reduce your self-help.

Student Effort

Your total student effort consists of a term-time job, which is the first component of your financial aid award. Outside scholarships may replace your term time job.

Loans are no longer included in the self-help portion of the financial aid award. However, if you decide to do so, you may still borrow a loan to replace your term time job.

If you wish to borrow a student loan, please contact a financial aid advisor at [redacted] or [redacted].

I understand that such changes may necessitate an adjustment to the Yale student's financial aid package.
- I understand that the student applicant may be given access to all information filed in support of this application for financial aid. Further, I understand that if a student is found to be in default, to have borrowed in excess of the loan limits, or to owe a refund after being offered financial aid, the University will withdraw all aid immediately while continuing to hold the student responsible for any charges incurred. Students who falsely attest to their status in this regard may be subject to disciplinary action as well.
- I understand that I must complete all necessary application forms and that the University will withhold financial aid if these forms and any other requested information are not submitted by my last date of attendance during the 200J-20F€ academic year.
