

International Silat Federation of America at Yale

Community Service Opportunities in New Haven

The International Silat Federation of America is dedicated to helping people in need and improving local communities, wherever they may be. The ISFA@Yale likewise contributes to community service in and around New Haven, CT. Below is a brief list of Soup Kitchens, Shelters, and Health Clinics for underserved populations in the Greater New Haven area.

The United Way of Greater New Haven lists additional service groups and volunteer opportunities on their website: www.uwgnh.org/index.php along with the relevant descriptions and contact information.

Soup Kitchens & Shelters

Downtown Evening Soup Kitchen

311 Temple Street, 203-772-3400

103 Whitney Avenue, 203-624-6426

www.downtowneveningsoupkitchen.com

The Downtown Evening Soup Kitchen (DESK) serves dinner at least 5 nights a week, and offers a food pantry on Wednesday afternoons. Dinner locations rotate throughout the week, and during the academic year include the Slifka Center for Jewish Life at Yale. Several Yale student groups volunteer at DESK on a regular basis.

Community Soup Kitchen

84 Broadway, New Haven, 203-624-4594

Profile by United Way of Greater New Haven:

www.volunteersolutions.org/uwgnh/org/219234.html

The Community Soup Kitchen serves breakfast and lunch five days a week, in collaboration with St. Thomas Moore's Wednesday Soup Kitchen and St. Luke's Lunch Program. The Hill Health Center offers free services here as well.

Columbus House

586 Ella T. Grasso Blvd, New Haven, 203-773-9673

www.columbushouse.org

Columbus House provides beds and shelter all year-round, and also accepts donations of food and clothing for the needy. Columbus House also offers case management and other programs and services for the homeless.

International Silat Federation of America at Yale

Soup Kitchens & Shelters, cont.

Emergency Shelter Management Service (Immanuel Baptist Shelter)

645 Grand Avenue, New Haven, 203-772-3500

Profile by United Way of Greater New Haven:

www.volunteersolutions.org/uwgnh/org/218302.html

The ESMS provides emergency shelter for homeless men, as well as hot meals, clothing, and job training and case management. The Hill Health Center provides free medical care during weekly on-site visits.

Community Health Clinics & Care

Fair Haven Community Health Center

374 Grand Avenue, New Haven, 203-777-7411

www.fhchc.org

Haven Free Clinic located at the Fair Haven Community Health Center

Contact Wednesdays 6-8pm or Fridays 3-5pm:
203-314-9305

freeclinic.med.yale.edu

Hill Health Center

(Various Locations in & around New Haven)

428 Columbus Avenue, 203-503-3000

226 Dixwell Avenue, 203-503-3420

www.hillhealthcenter.com

Hill Health Center

AIDS Project New Haven

1302 Chapel Street, New Haven, 203-624-0947

www.apnh.org