

BERNADETTE NADYA JAWORSKY

Sociology Department, Yale University

140 Prospect Street, Urban Hall

P.O. Box 208265

New Haven, CT 06520

Facsimile (203) 432-6976

<http://www.yale.edu/socdept/graduate/students.html#jaworsky>

E-mail: bernadette.jaworsky@yale.edu

-EDUCATION:

- Yale University (anticipated) 2010
PhD Student, sociology
- Wellesley College 2005
B.A., American Studies and Sociology (w/honors), summa cum laude
*Thesis: "Sobornist" and Catholicity among Connecticut's Ukrainian Catholics:
Organizational Survival as Cultural Performance*
- Lund University, Campus Helsingborg, Sweden 2004
Interdisciplinary Graduate Summer School and Seminar

-FELLOWSHIPS, AWARDS, HONORARY POSITIONS:

- Junior Fellow of the Academy 2005-2006
The American Academy of Political and Social Science
- Pre-doctoral Fellow 2005-2006
Center for Cultural Sociology, Yale University
- Fanny Bullock Workman Fellowship 2005-2006
For graduate work in the Social Sciences ($16,000)
- Jerome A. Schiff Fellowship 2004-2005
For Honors Thesis Research ($2,000)
- Alpha Kappa Delta Award for Distinction in Sociology 2005
Wellesley College
- Hersey Prize in American Studies 2005
"USA Patriots Act: Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools of Resistance In Our Town"
- Hersey Prize in American Studies 2004
"Patriotism: The Last Best Hope on Earth?"
- Three Generations Prize for Writing in the Social Sciences 2004
"Human Rights as Women's Rights:
A Case against Female Genital Operations"
- Woodrow Wilson Prize for Best Essay in Political Theory 2004
"An Indecent Proposal: Pitching the Idea of Getting Hitched"
- Katherine Malone Scholar Prize - Nominee 2003

-RESEARCH GRANTS:

Spiritual Capital Research Program, Metanexus Institute 2006-2008

Comparing Spiritual and Other Forms of Social Capital:
Lessons from the Immigrant Experience, Co-Investigator with
Drs. Peggy Levitt, Wendy Cadge, & Sara Curran ($150,000)

Wellesley College Summer Research Grant 2004

American Patriotism in a Post-9/11 Context ($4,200)

NSF Undergraduate Summer Research Grant 2003

American Patriotism in a Post-9/11 Context ($4,100)

-TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

Teaching Assistant to Prof. Thomas Cushman, Fall Semester 2003

American Studies Seminar on Patriotism, Wellesley College.

Guest Lecturer for Prof. Peggy Levitt, Fall Semester 2005

Sociology of Religion, Wellesley College

-PRESENTATIONS:

“Sobornist” and Catholicity among Connecticut’s Ukrainian Catholics: Organizational Survival as Cultural Performance, Center for Cultural Sociology, Yale University, November 4, 2005.

“Family Ties: Culture and Organization among Ukrainian Catholics in America” presented at the 2005 Ruhlman conference, Wellesley College, MA, May 3.

“A Culture of ‘Virtue’ in American Patriotism” presented at the Northeast Political Science Association Annual Meeting, Boston, MA, November 13, 2004.

“Democracy: It’s More than Just Voting” Invited Participant to a Democracy Roundtable at the 2004 Tanner Conference, Wellesley College, MA, November 9.

“Postmodern Patriotism” Lund University-Campus Helsingborg, Sweden, June 14, 2004.

“The Patriotic Self in a Post-9/11 Context” presented at the 2004 Ruhlman Conference, Wellesley College, MA, April 28.

“Women’s Rights as Human Rights: A Case against Female Genital Operations” presented at the 2003 Ruhlman Conference, Wellesley College, MA and as a Guest Lecturer at MassBay Community College, Wellesley, MA, May 2003.

-WORKS UNDER REVIEW/IN PROGRESS:

“American Patriotism as Cosmopolitan Virtue,” with co-author Thomas Cushman, for submission to the journal Citizenship Studies, Taylor and Francis.

Two excerpted, co-authored articles for Spring 2006, from God Needs No Passport: Transnational Religious Life (book manuscript by Peggy Levitt).

-RESEARCH EXPERIENCE:

Research Supervisor for Dr. Peggy Levitt, Wellesley College 2003-present
Academic research (religion, globalization, transnationalism, culture, cognition, migration, identity, organizations), manuscript editing/proofing, administrative work, supervision of associate researchers

Research Assistant to Dr. Kimberley L. Phillips 2003-2005
College of William and Mary, Williamsburg, VA
Academic research (African Americans in the U.S. military, popular culture)

-AREAS OF RESEARCH INTEREST:

- Cultural Sociology
- Citizenship and Nationalism
- Transnational Studies/Globalization
- Sociology of Religion
- Sociology of International Migration
- Organizational Theory

-LANGUAGES:

- Ukrainian (fluent)
- Spanish (basic fluency)
- Italian, Portuguese (rudimentary)

-PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS:

- American Sociological Association
- Society for the Scientific Study of Religion
- Social Science History Association