GRAND OPENING CELEBRATION THOMAS E. GOLDEN, JR. CENTER

Dear Friend of Saint Thomas More Chapel:

Since being named Chaplain in 1994, I have witnessed tremendous growth in Catholic life on campus. More students participate in Sunday Masses and regular programs, additional members of the Pastoral Team provide further leadership, expanding programs offer opportunities for service and increased alumni participate with annual donations to make it all possible. The confluence of many factors has made something wonderful possible.

All this took a huge leap forward when we dedicated the new Thomas E. Golden, Jr. Center on December 1st, 2nd and 3rd, 2006. That milestone was made possible because of Mr. Golden's personal commitment and the involvement of alumni around the world. It is my hope that each person feels involved and responsible for all that is happening here on a daily basis. Furthermore, I hope that whenever alumni return to campus they will stop by and enjoy the accomplishment they have helped to bring about.

Recently, a first year student stopped me in front of the Chapel after Mass and expressed how happy he was to find a vibrant Catholic community at Yale. He had considered a Catholic university because his faith was important to him. But, when he was accepted here, he hoped that he would find the support for being Catholic that he had expected to find on a Catholic campus. He is inspired by all that he finds here and has quickly become 'a regular.'

If I had the chance to speak individually with each of you, I would want to impress upon you how much your involvement adds to the continuing growth of this community. Without your support, we could not offer all that we do for students today. You make a difference!

Although a capital campaign to raise money for the construction of a much needed student center to house our expanding program and to renovate the Chapel and Residence is coming to completion, The More House Fund for annual operating expenses needs your faithful support. Your contribution directly benefits the formation of committed as well as questioning students. I appreciate your generosity which has enabled a tremendous growth in ministry and a renewed vitality of Catholic life at Yale.

I look forward to welcoming you to the new Center when your travels bring you to campus.

May God bless you abundantly.

A HEARTFELT THANK YOU TO KERRY

Truly there are ‘labors of love’ and this is an apt description for the enthusiasm, energy and commitment Kerry Robinson M.A.R. ‘94 has brought to her role as Director of Development for The Saint Thomas More Corporation. Literally Kerry loved her job—directing the chaplaincy’s $75 million capital campaign.

Kerry worked closely with Fr. Bob Beloin in communicating to Catholic alumni the plans for Saint Thomas More and the future of Catholic life at Yale. During her tenure she and Fr. Bob dared to dream big and the result is a capital campaign successful beyond imagining! Together they presented a dynamic example of lay-clergy collaboration. They elevated the visibility of Saint Thomas More Chapel and offered students, faculty, alumni and the wider Catholic Church a compelling vision of what a vibrant Catholic intellectual and spiritual ministry on campus could be.

Kerry always believed that development itself was a ministry, that everyone had the right to be part of something joyful and life-giving for others, and that money would follow mission.

When the campaign was initiated in 1998 with the celebration of the 60th anniversary of the dedication of the Chapel, the goal was to raise the original campaign goal. By any measure, that is an amazing accomplishment!

The chaplain, the trustees, the staff, the students and the Yale Catholic Community past and present are deeply grateful for all that Kerry has done to secure the future of the chaplaincy and the vibrancy of Catholic intellectual and spiritual life at Yale.

Kerry was named the founding executive director of the National Leadership Roundtable on Church Management which promotes excellence and best practices in the management, finances and human resource development of the Catholic Church in the U.S. by greater incorporation of the expertise of the laity. When she accepted this new call in July 2005, she worked out an arrangement with the Leadership Roundtable so that she could faithfully see her development efforts through to completion, culminating in the opening of the new center. Kerry will continue to serve as a member of the Program and Strategic Planning Committees of Saint Thomas More and with her husband and children will continue as active members of the worshipping community.

Please Support The Annual More House Fund

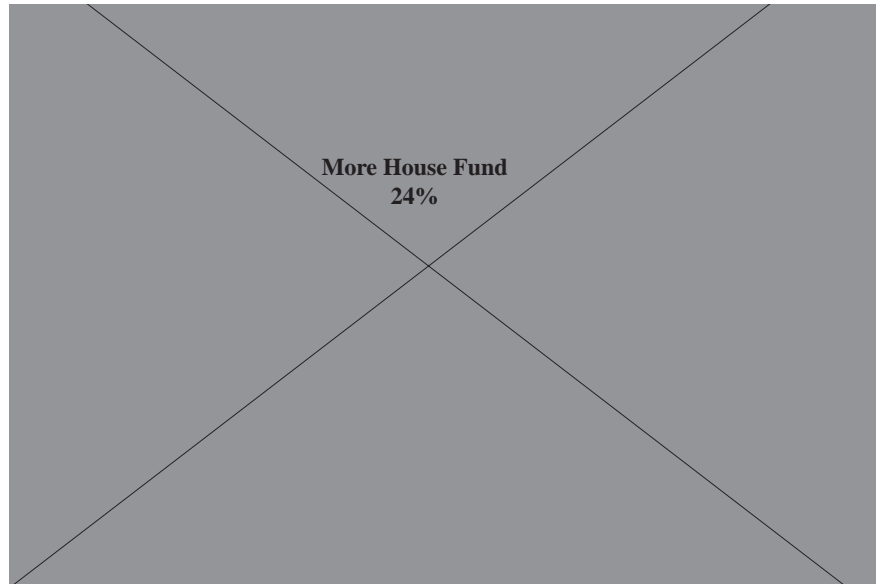

Students at Yale now have a wonderful new center where their faith can be shared and their values can be strengthened. Financial contributions from alumni and other friends of the Chapel make an enormous difference! Your donation makes possible vibrant liturgies, lectures and discussions, Small Church Communities, retreats, opportunities for volunteer service and pastoral counseling services to help students come to a mature faith.

We need your donation to support Catholic life at Yale.

CAPITAL CAMPAIGN UPDATE

To date $72.5 million has been raised in gifts and pledges for the Saint Thomas More Capital Campaign. $50 million has been earmarked for our endowment, a large percentage of which will come from the estate of Thomas E. Golden Jr. '51, '52 M.Eng in recognition of whose generosity the new center is named. $22.5 million toward a $25 million goal has been raised in gifts and pledges to the Saint Thomas More Capital Campaign Building Fund. On December 1—3, 2006 the Thomas E. Golden Jr. Center was dedicated and officially opened. The next phase of construction will concern the renovations of Saint Thomas More Chapel which was built in 1937 and the Chaplain's residence which was built in 1960. There is still time to be part of this historic development effort and successful expansion of Catholic life at Yale. Thank you to all who have participated in the campaign. Your generosity contributed to a record-breaking fundraising effort in Catholic campus ministry, raising nearly 15 times the original campaign goal!

Special Note to all Graduates of Yale College

In support of the Capital Campaign, Yale President Richard Levin has offered to credit all gifts made to The Saint Thomas More Building Fund by graduates of Yale College as class/reunion gifts. This can be done by sending the gift/pledge directly to Saint Thomas More Chapel, noting that credit should be applied to one's class gift, or by sending it to the Yale Development Office, indicating that it is to be used for The Saint Thomas More Building Fund. Pledges can be made over a two-year period. Both the Chapel and the Yale Development Office will acknowledge such gifts and pledges. Please take advantage of this tremendous opportunity to help Yale and Saint Thomas More Chapel.

NEW FACES AT THE CHAPEL

The Saint Thomas More Pastoral Team is growing. New team members include Rev. Peter Walsh, CSC, Assistant Chaplain; Korina Dacunto, Event Coordinator; Frank Finkle, Facility Manager; and Henry (Hank) Smithson, Finance Manager. Three of these four additions are filling new positions that the board approved because of the programmatic and physical expansion related to the opening of the Thomas E. Golden, Jr. Center.

For Korina, Frank and Hank working for a faith based, not-for-profit organization is a new experience that they have whole-heartedly embraced! In addition to their professional expertise and experience, they bring fresh perspectives and new ideas that are always welcome.

A REFLECTION FROM STM'S STUDENT INTERN

Sarah Heiman '04, YDS '08

My first encounter in the summer of 2001 with the Saint Thomas More community began with a letter — a letter that was among many that welcomed me as I began my transition from a rural Nebraska high school to an urban Ivy League institution.

The first Mass I attended at Saint Thomas More confirmed the opinion of the student who wrote to me, this was a welcoming, vibrant place of faith. Here, I have been challenged and continue to be challenged to fully integrate all aspects of my personality and character into my religious life.

Now, in my second year in the Masters of Divinity program at Yale Divinity School, I view my role as intern as directed towards aiding this fantastic pastoral team in shaping young adult leaders in what it means to bring one's faith into every aspect of one's life. My contributions reflect both my own ministerial interests—I anticipate serving as a lay Catholic campus minister—and the needs of the community.

To this end, one of the major programs that I am leading involves a presentation and discussion around key issues within the US and the wider world and looks at how the Roman Catholic Church has been responding to those issues. The first two sessions dealt with the issues of immigration and political life, respectively, and both began a dialogue about how we as Catholics should respond to these topics. These sessions provide our students with the language, information, and moral concerns that they can use in their own private discussions about these issues with their suite-mates, professors, and wider community.

Other programs that I am spearheading include a Thursday night prayer liturgy in the new meditation room beginning in November and Theology on Tap, a program started in the Archdiocese of Chicago that invites young people to enter into dialogue with informed speakers on theological topics. Serving the Saint Thomas More community first as a student leader and now as a member of the pastoral team is really an honor and a privilege, and I only hope that

WELCOME FR. PETER!

Assistant Chaplain

Fr. Peter Walsh is a Holy Cross priest and a native of Massachusetts. He completed his B.A. in English from Stonehill College, his Masters of Divinity from the University of Notre Dame, and M.A. in English from Boston College. He is currently completing a Ph.D. in English Literature from Boston College. He comes to Saint Thomas More from Stonehill College, where he taught English, lived in a freshman residence hall, and directed a religious formation program for undergraduate students interested in ministry.

Ordained in 1989 by Bishop Peter Rosazza, Fr. Peter has served in Campus Ministry at Stonehill College as well as in parishes in Boston and Sharon, Massachusetts. Especially in his work at St. Cecilia's in Boston, which serves the pastoral needs of students from several Boston campuses, he has enjoyed bringing his love of literature into dialogue with the experience of faith. Cultural references, from such diverse sources as the poetry of Seamus Heaney to Notre Dame Football often find their way into his preaching. As part of the pastoral team at Saint Thomas More, Fr. Peter ministers to the graduate and professional students. He has particularly enjoyed sharing some of his favorite recreations with graduate students. Pictured here, he is leading a hike up Sleeping Giant Mountain in early autumn.

As a complement to the Graduate Women's group, led by fellow Assistant Chaplain Katie Byrnes, Fr. Peter has begun the "Scotus Society" which allows graduate men to explore men's spirituality and single malt scotch on a monthly basis. He is working with both undergraduate and graduate students planning a Saint Thomas More film series that will take advantage of the multimedia opportunities of the Thomas E. Golden, Jr. Center. The first film in the series, shown during the dedication weekend, was "A Man for All Seasons" with an introductory presentation by trustee J. Charles Mokriski, '64, '71 JD.

Fr. Peter also ministers to undergraduate student athletes in a long-standing program at Saint Thomas More known as "Cathletics." Student athletes join together for prayer and fellowship as they support each other in the commitment to their sport and draw connections between athletic activity and their Catholic faith. Since arriving in early August, Fr. Peter has been impressed by the vibrancy of Catholic life at Yale and the warm welcome he has received from the community at Saint Thomas More.

STEPHEN MURPHY, STM's NEW TRUSTEE

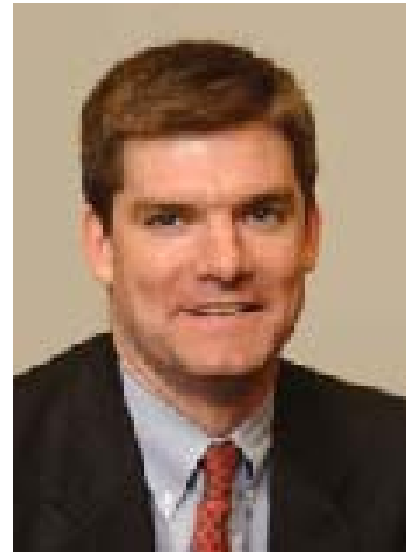

Stephen C. Murphy, '87 BA, Director of Business Services Improvement at Yale, was elected to a six-year term as an alumni trustee of the board of St. Thomas More at the June 3, 2006 board meeting. Steve continues to serve on STM's finance committee and his financial savy and dedication to the mission of the chaplaincy are assets that he brings to board deliberations.

Professionally, Steve is working to improve the cost, quality and efficiency of administrative services around the university. Prior to joining the university, Steve served in various finance and business development positions in the private sector in the United States, Europe and Asia: as a management consultant for Marakon Associates in their Stamford and London offices; Finance Director for Wilson Sporting Goods, Europe, based in Munich; Director of Business Development for Haagen-Dazs Asia/Pacific based in Hong Kong; and as the senior financial executive at several start-up and technology companies in the Boston area. Sponsored by Yale, Steve recently completed The General Manager Program, an executive education program, at Harvard Business School.

Most Sundays you will find Steve, his wife Vicki ('90 BA), and their one-year-old twin daughters Abigail and Julia at the 10:00 am Mass at Saint Thomas More Chapel. Steve is an active supporter of Families of SMA, a non-profit organization dedicated to curing Spinal Muscular Atrophy, the leading genetic killer of children under the age of two.

He also serves as the Treasurer of Rumberger & Company, a general contracting firm based in Middletown, Connecticut and Secretary of his HBS TGMP 17 class.

Judge Guido Calabresi

One of Yale's greatest assets is its faculty. The university's goal is to recruit and retain the 'best in class' because it realizes that students need and are attracted by great scholars. Our chaplain, Fr. Bob, recognized early in his tenure here at Saint Thomas More that involving Catholic faculty in the life of the chapel would be a key factor in expanding the intellectual and spiritual programming offered.

The Catholic Faculty Series is a direct outgrowth of this vision. Funded through the generosity of a donor, the series invites Catholic faculty and administrators to share with students their lives as scholars and believers.

This year's roster for the Fall included Michael Cappello, MD, Professor of Pediatrics and Epidemiology & Public Health who specializes in Infectious Diseases, with a particular interest in Tropical Medicine and Parasitology. He spoke to a capacity crowd on October 8, 2006. Sterling Professor Emeritus of Law, former Law School Dean, and Judge of the U. S. Court of Appeals, 2nd Circuit, the Honorable Guido Calabresi shared his faith journey on November 5, 2006.

In the Spring Semester the series will host these Faculty Members: Denys Turner, the Horace Tracy Pitkin Professor of Historical Theology at Yale Divinity School who studies the traditions of Western Christian mysticism with special emphasis on doctrines of religious language and of selfhood; Shauna King, former PepsiCo executive recently appointed Yale's Vice President for Finance and Administration; and Margot Fassler, Robert Tangeman Professor of Music History and Liturgy, whose special fields of study are Medieval and American Sacred Music, and the Liturgy of the Latin Middle Ages.
