

YALE INSTITUTE FOR BIOSPHERIC STUDIES (YIBS)

Call for Nominations for:

Gaylord Donnelley Postdoctoral Environmental Fellowships

In memory of Mr. Gaylord Donnelley, a conservationist dedicated to advances in research and education and funded by an endowment from the Gaylord and Dorothy Donnelley Foundation and the Donnelley Family.

YIBS Postdoctoral Environmental Fellowships

Funded by the Yale Institute for Biospheric Studies Program Support Fund under the auspices of the YIBS Director

Eligibility:

- Individuals who have been awarded the PhD degree within the past three years or who are about to be awarded the PhD degree are eligible for nomination.
- Yale PhD graduates and individuals already in residence at Yale are not eligible

Disciplines & Faculty Sponsors:

- The postdoctoral associate award is intended for research in biodiversity, research that combines biodiversity with public policy, as well as other areas of environmental sciences.
- Associates will work in collaboration with a Yale Faculty member.
- The sponsor will provide space and research funds beyond the award's contingency fund.

Award:

- Awards will be made for a two-year duration, without possibility of renewal.
- Annual compensation is $42,000 including fringe benefits, and $2000 in contingency funds.

Nomination Process:

- Nominations must be made by a member of the Yale faculty working in the environmental sciences who will provide research infrastructure if nominee is selected; direction applications are not accepted.
- Nominations, in the form of a letter outlining the candidate's qualifications, will be limited to one per faculty member
- Nominees are asked to provide the following:
 - * A two-page research proposal
 - * An abbreviated Curriculum Vitae with a complete bibliography
 - * Three letters of recommendation
 - * One manuscript or reprint of a published work

Deadlines:

- Faculty nominations are due December 5, 2008; Nominee's application materials are due January 31, 2009
- Awards will be announced on or before April 3, 2009 and the associate will begin residency at Yale University at a time to be negotiated with his/her sponsor, but starting after July 1, 2009

Send letters of nomination and nominee application materials to:

Gaylord Donnelley and YIBS Environmental Associates Awards
Yale Institute for Biospheric Studies/Rose Rita Riccitelli, Assistant Director
P.O. Box 208105
New Haven, CT 06520-8105
Phone: (203) 432-9856 – Fax: (203) 432-9927