

The Yale Journal of International Law

Young Scholars Conference

Saturday, March 4, 2006

All events at The Yale Law School

- 9:00–10:15 AM
Room 129
PANEL: DEALING WITH INTERNATIONAL PROBLEMS
Panelists: Margo Drakos, “Extracting Corporate Responsibility: Towards A Human Rights Impact Assessment”; Andrew Mohraz, “Path To Peace Or Prelude To War: The IAEA’s Handling Of Iran’s Nuclear Program”; Judith Welling, “Sudan: Seeking The Benefits Of Globalization”; and Christopher Connolly, “Living On The Past: The Role Of Truth Commissions In Post-Conflict Societies And The Case Study Of Northern Ireland”
Moderated by Professor Thomas Lee, Columbia Law School
- 10:30–11:45 AM
Room 129
PANEL: NEW QUESTIONS OF PROCESS & PROCEDURE IN INTERNATIONAL TRIBUNALS
Panelists: Howard Wachtel, “Of Politics & Prudence: Exploring The Practicability Of An International Political Question Doctrine”; Liana Wolf, “Countervailing a Hidden Subsidy: Contemplating a GATT Case against the US for Its Rejection of the Kyoto Protocol”; Laura Moranchek, “Protecting National Security Evidence While Prosecuting War Crimes”; and Jessica Tillson, “The Role of Reservations and Declarations Before the Inter-American Court of Human Rights”
Moderated by Professor Rosa Ehrenreich Brooks, University of Virginia Law School
- 12:00 PM
Dining Hall
LUNCH
- 1:00 PM
Room 127
KEYNOTE ADDRESS by WILLIAM TAFT IV, former Acting Secretary of Defense and Legal Advisor to the State Department
- 2:00–3:15 PM
Room 129
PANEL: HANDLING NONCONFORMIST REGIMES IN A REGIME OF UNIFORMITY
Panelists: Natalie Prescott, “Orange Revolution In Red, White And Blue: U.S. Impact On The 2004 Ukrainian Election”; Andrew Dennington, “Justifying The U.S. Supreme Court’s Use Of Contemporary Foreign Legal Practice In Atkins, Lawrence, and Roper”; Elizabeth Chorvat, “A Thinly-Veiled Mischief: The Case Against Tax Harmonization”; and Kent Walker, “Challenges To Chinese Achievement Of Energy Security Through Global Acquisitions”
Moderated by Professor Paul Schiff Berman, University of Connecticut School of Law
- 3:30–4:45 PM
Room 129
PANEL: GLOBALIZATION THEORY
Panelists: Jeffrey Vail, “The New Map: Terrorism and the Decline of the Nation-State in a Post-Cartesian World”; Maia Goodell, “Origins of the Combatant Privilege”; Nicholas Robinson, “Internationalizing the Local and the Search for Agency in the Global”; and Jeffrey Goldman, “Corporate Social Responsibility and Lex Mercatoria: The Improbable Meets the Imaginary”
Moderated by Professor Laura Dickinson, University of Connecticut School of Law
- 5:00–6:00 PM
Faculty Lounge
ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION WITH INTERNATIONAL LAW SCHOLARS ON ENTERING LEGAL ACADEMIA