Report from your President and Vice President

We are delighted to report that 2006-2007 was a wonderful year for YUWO, from a lively Wine and Cheese Reception in September through two very interesting study groups, a great series of six Lunch and Learn lectures, a terrific group of guided tours to Naumkeg and Edith Wharton’s home, and to the Rose Center, Farmington Canal Trail, Yale Furniture Collection, and the Schweitzer Institute in New Haven and our environs. Our activity groups have provided a wonderful range of events throughout the year — everything from a new book group to art tours to gourmet cooking, movies, music together, tennis, bridge and many more!

The generous gift to the Magee Fenn Fund last year continues to give our scholarship program a boost in funds. We look forward to awarding scholarships to a truly remarkable group of women today. Our membership enjoys the addition of newcomers, who have joined many of our activities and are helping to lead YUWO into the future.

We thank all of you who have made this a delightful year. We enjoy working with you to provide the women in the Yale community with such exciting opportunities to pursue our interests, both intellectual and social, to develop friendships and to support our scholarship awards program.

Our special thanks to Priscilla Kissick and Betsy Suatoni for planning such a beautiful Annual Meeting and Scholarship Awards Luncheon and to Marty Sherman for producing our Annual Report.

Thanks to all of you,

Patty Pollard and Johanna Becker

Newcomers Report

Twenty-five Newcomers joined YUWO during the 2006-07 academic year.

To inform women who had recently retired from Yale and employees (or their spouses) who had just arrived at Yale, a card was sent from YUWO in August inviting them to YUWO’s annual Wine and Cheese Reception at the President’s House in September.

Many of these women attended the reception where they met members and learned about the benefits of a YUWO membership. Some joined right away and signed up for future events. Others joined later.

Early in October, newcomers spent a pleasant evening, enjoying dessert and conversation at Trudy Bollier’s home where board members met newcomers and information was available. Lyn Howe impressed all of us with the number and variety of activities. Audrey DeFronzo was there in her role as membership chair. Others enjoyed remembering the good old times.

The last event held specifically for newcomers this year was an afternoon gathering in the library of the Graduate Club on April 14 where photographer Mary Jo Warner exhibited her 2006-07 pictures of members enjoying YUWO activities and events. We can be thankful to Daisy Chapman, a Yale faculty wife who organized the first Newcomers’ Club in the 1940’s and who is the benefactor of YUWO’s current Newcomers programming.

Membership

YUWO brochures were mailed to members and prospective members in August. Membership applications were also accepted at the September Wine and Cheese reception and applications forms were also included in the September, October and November newsletters. Reminder postcards were mailed to delinquent members in November.

During the '06-'07 year there were 342 members of YUWO. This is down from 363 members the prior year. The 342 number includes 24 newcomers.

We continue to encourage members to receive the newsletter by e-mail and 64 members currently do so.

This year donations made by members to the various YUWO scholarship funds were sent to the membership chairperson, documented, and then forwarded to the Assistant Treasurer. Documentation was forwarded to the Corresponding Secretary for acknowledgment of the donations.

Newsletter

Monthly newsletters have been sent from August through May informing the membership of the many terrific activities sponsored by YUWO. Also our President and Vice President’s monthly message, which gives us a sense of YUWO’s long-term goals, has been included in each edition. Information on scholarship fund giving is available in many editions so that members are encouraged to give to this worthy endeavor.

I would like to thank Manette Adams for her lively articles highlighting members and others important to YUWO. If you have something to say to the members, a review of an activity or kudos for a part of our program, please let me know by email.

— Alice Loomis

Special thanks to Carol and Gil Hogan for handling all our newsletter (and other) mailing needs all year!

Annual Brochure

The production and distribution of the YUWO Annual Brochure was again a team effort by Stephanie Peck, Happy Thomas, Rose Cuomo, and Marty Sherman.

Material concerning activities and programs was gathered in May and June. The brochure was sent to the printer in July and was mailed in August by a volunteer group to members and others who might have an interest in joining YUWO.

— Marty Sherman

Website

The YUWO website at www.yale.edu/yuwo was created by Marty Sherman in the summer of 1999. On it one can find current and past newsletters, the current year’s brochure, recent annual reports, a photo gallery showing past events, a calendar with upcoming dates, information about YUWO scholarships, a membership application and many other helpful links. For the past three years, my husband Martin has kept the website up to date with help from me.

— Eva Ewing
Thirty one women showed interest in the YUWO scholarship program this year and requested application forms which were sent out between September 2006 and February 2007. Once again our committee members were impressed with the high quality of our applicants.

We awarded 9 scholarships totaling $9700 to be used in the upcoming academic year 2007/2008. The amounts awarded ranged from $500 to $2000. This brings the total number of recipients to 270 women and the amount of monies given to $240,900.

We are grateful once again for the generous donations from the YUWO community as a whole, the returns of wisely managed funds and for the active participation in YUWO programs.

Lunch & Learn (2006-2007)

Responsibility for Lunch & Learn was assumed this year by a team rather than one single individual. The following YUWO members volunteered to assume responsibilities for a session; Sue Addiss, Beth Dock, Stephanie Jatlow, Priscilla Kissick, Kay Ross, and Avril Winks. We all met for lunch on May 30th to discuss plans, choose topics for Lunch & Learn, and delegate responsibilities. All meetings of the Lunch & Learn program were held at 12:00 for coffee, tea and cookies, with the lecture from 12:30 to 1:30. The coffee and tea were arranged by each volunteer organizer and with sweets provided by members of the committee and YUWO. Informal assessment of this method of organizing the Lunch & Learn program sessions was positive.

The following programs were presented.

Tuesday September 19, 2006
“Just Love: A Framework for Sexual Ethics” a talk by Margaret A. Farley Ph.D., Gilbert L. Stark Chair in Christian Ethics at Yale Divinity School was held at Rose Alumni House 232 York Street; 26 attended.

Tuesday October 17, 2006
“Recording for the Blind and Dyslexic, History and Program” a talk by Ann Fortunato Director of Reading for the Blind and Dyslexic and Bernadetta Pracon and her dog Kip. Bernadetta, a high school senior, demonstrated her Braille note machine. The program was held at Branford College Masters House; 12 attended.

Tuesday November 14, 2006
“Green Sprawl; Environmentally Sustainable Land Development” by Professor Gaboury Benoit, the Co-Director of the Hixon Center for Urban Ecology at Yale School of Forestry. The program was held at Watson Center of the School of Management; 28 attended.

Tuesday January 16, 2007
“African Women Writers and their Perspective on Present-Day Africa” by Ann Bierstecker, Assoc. Prof. of Linguistics and Assoc. Chair of the Council on African Studies. The program was held at Berkeley North Masters’s quarters. 21 attended.

Tuesday February 13, 2007
“Celebrating Midwifery and the YSN Nurse-Midwifery Program; History and Practice” by Helen Varney Burst, emeritus chair of the Nurse-Midwifery Program of Yale School of Nursing. The program was held at the School of Nursing, with parking on the grounds. 14 attended.

Tuesday March 20, 2007
“Murder in the Model City” by Prof. Douglas Rae, Warren Kimbro and Paul Bass. The program was held at the Steinbach Lounge of the School of Management with parking at the Lawn Club; 24 attended.

Minutes of the YUWO 2006 Annual Meeting

The 41st Annual Meeting of the Yale University Women’s Organization was brought to order by President Alice Loomis at Noon on May 3, 2006 at the New Haven Country Club, with over 119 in attendance. Copies of the Annual Report were available at each attendee’s seat. Alice thanked Nancy Rosenbaum for her diligence in faithfully producing the excellent Annual Report again this year. There was a unanimous vote to accept the minutes of the May 5, 2005 Annual Meeting. Treasurer Mary-Jo Warren included the YUWO Proposed Budget for 2006-2007 in the Annual Report, which was unanimously approved by the membership in attendance.

The Slate of Officers for 2006-2007 was presented by President Alice Loomis representing the Nominating Chair Eva Ewing:

- President: Patty Pollard
- Vice-President: Johanna Becker
- Corresponding Secretary: Marie Santo
- Activities Chair: Lyn Howe, assisted by Anne Schenck.

The motion to accept the Slate of Officers was unanimously accepted.

President Alice Loomis read the Proposed Changes to the YUWO Constitution and Bylaws. A motion to accept the changes was unanimously approved. A delightful luncheon followed. Alice thanked Chair Betsy Suatoni and Co-chair Priscilla Kissick for their hard work in arranging the luncheon and providing the lovely menu and beautiful décor.

Scholarship Chairman Betty Ann Levitin announced the presentation of awards to the 12 recipients, ranging in ages from 26 to 47. She thanked her committee for their assistance in choosing the remarkable women. Betty Ann acknowledged the recipients with a charming anecdote about each and how they had succeeded in overcoming obstacles. (Please see the Scholarship Committee complete report in this Annual Report.)

Vice President Patty Pollard introduced the speaker, Marna Borgstrom, President and CEO of Yale-New Haven Hospital and Health Care System. Patty stated that Marna is the first woman CEO in the 180 years of the history of Yale-New Haven Hospital. This was met with an enthusiastic reception by the YUWO women. Marna explained the business plan uniting the hospital with the Yale Medical School. She detailed the excellent services that saw over 50,000 patients discharged last year. In conclusion, she discussed how she was able to manage the opportunities that became available to her in her twenty-six year career as a hospital administrator. She felt it was not being a woman that mattered, but rather working hard and working well. It was not a matter of which road she had taken, but rather she felt she was lucky enough to be able to take advantage of the opportunities that came along. The career secret she stressed was to focus on outcomes.

Vice-President (and President-Elect) Patty Pollard thanked Alice Loomis for her two great years of service as President of YUWO. The meeting adjourned at 2:20 pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Marcia MacDonald, Corresponding Secretary
Study Group

The Study Group presented two successful programs at the New Haven Lawn Club this year. The fall series was “A Special Relationship: The American People and the British Monarchy,” five lectures by Frank Prochaska, Lecturer and Senior Research Scientist in History.

In the spring, members and their guests enjoyed five lectures entitled “Constructing the Public Realm: Urban Space and Its Uses” featuring Alan Plattus, Professor of Architecture and Urbanism.

The excellent attendance at these lectures led the Study Group to present the YUWO Scholarship Fund with a donation of $2000.

Wine and Cheese Reception

YUWO's Wine and Cheese Reception was held on September 16, 2006 at the President's House on Hillhouse Avenue. Once again, Jane Levin was kind enough to welcome our group.

The reception opens the YUWO year and is always popular as we meet newcomers to the Yale community and visit with friends after the summer break. Equally important, this party is a preview of events to be sponsored by YUWO in the coming year. Representatives of the many interest and study groups are on hand to answer questions and provide details of the various programs.

This year Karl Ronne of The Wine Thief coordinated with Elliot and David Brause to offer an excellent assortment of wines for tasting. Karl has generously agreed to succeed Elliot as our wine supplier for future receptions. Happily, the Brauses intend to come each year to share their expertise with us.

Our opening party this year was a real success and the YUWO membership is most grateful to President and Mrs. Levin for their hospitality.

Travel Gourmet

Travel Gourmet visited five sites in Connecticut: in September, we went to the Stone-Fyler Museum in Windsor, followed by lunch at the Marriott Airport Inn. In October, the group visited Monte Cristo Cottage, summer home of Eugene O'Neill in New London, with lunch at the Lighthouse Inn. November's trip was to see the new wing of the Museum of American Art in New Britain, followed by lunch at the East Side Restaurant, with a German menu. March's trip was to the Bruce Museum in Greenwich, followed by lunch at The Dressing Room, Paul Newman's new place in Westport. The Timex Museum in Waterbury was the destination of the final visit, followed by lunch at a nearby restaurant.

The Travel Gourmet Committee for 2006-2007 was Nancy Ahlstrom-Ruthman, Jacqueline Collimore and Frances Woods.

2006-2007 Excursions

Two day-long excursions were scheduled for the 2006-2007 YUWO calendar year. On the first trip, on Friday, October 6, 2006, a group of 24 YUWO members visited “The Mount,” Edith Wharton’s house and gardens and “Naumkeag” house and gardens in Lenox, MA. The cost was $80 (bus, lunch, and two entrance fees). The houses and gardens were magnificent, and the fall foliage an added bonus!

The spring excursion took place on May 9, 2007. This trip included the J. P. Morgan Library and the Tenement Museum in New York City. The Morgan Library displays a collection of drawings, prints, music manuscripts, illustrated books, and works of art from the 15th century on, including three copies of the Gutenberg Bible and The Tenement Museum shows the actual apartment of ten immigrants to New York City in approximately 1916. Cost was $65, exclusive of lunch.

— Leona Nalle

Holiday Party

The Holiday Party took place on Sunday, December 17 at the Divinity School Common Room. The room was festively decorated with greens cut and arranged by Leona Nalle and Ellie Mattson. The greens and centerpiece were sold providing money for the scholarship fund. The food and drink were coordinated by Carol Dahwan and supplied by attendees. Roberta Thornton and Joan Binder again obtained items for a silent auction and raffle. A festive time was had by all and the scholarship fund was increased thereby.

Exploring Yale and New Haven County

Exploring Yale and New Haven County In the fall we went on two local tours - both over-subscribed. The first tour in October was the handsome, newly opened Rose Center on Ashmun St., which houses the Yale Police Dept. as well as a modern community center for the Dixwell neighborhood. The police station was impressive, with state of the art communications equipment including control stations that rise to allow officers to operate them standing if they need to change position after long hours of duty. After the building tour, our group walked the short nearby section of the Canal trail with President Lisa Fernandez to learn about the development of this resource.

Our November curator tour of the Yale Furniture Study collection was available at two times during the day, as the number of visitors is strictly limited. We viewed examples of furniture and wooden objects from this fascinating, huge collection. To accommodate those unable to make the tour in November, it was repeated in February and once again the group was virtually filled.

On March 1, we had a tour of the Schweitzer Institute at Quinnipiac University. Director David Ives spoke to the group about the work of the institute, and answered questions. A short video about the Institute was viewed. The schedule of the Director required this tour to take place at short notice, and timing did not allow for optimum publicity in the YUWO newsletter, although notice went out on the internet to those on the YUWO email list. Because of lack of publicity and bad weather this was a small tour group. There might be sufficient interest to offer this tour again for those who missed it.

At the end of March a group of sixteen YUWO members had the pleasure of seeing (and playing!) the exotic Javanese gamelan musical ensemble recently acquired by Yale, and now housed in a basement room in Hendrie Hall. It spreads over the entire carpeted floor, a creation of gleaming brass, gold and black paint and intricate wood carving. Professor Sarah Weiss gave a lively talk and demonstration of the gamelan, and then under her direction group members tried out the various parts of the ensemble.

Activities for 2006-2007

There were 21 Activities groups in YUWO this year, including five different book groups, with the latest one started at a Newcomers meeting. That group invited a local author to lunch, after enjoying her book. Most groups are active and thriving, showing the wide range of interests among our members. The German conversation group and Play Readers did not meet this year, and the Mah Jong group was not seeking new members. A new daytime Bridge group started up, and other activities continue with renewed ideas and vitality.

The French group has a large group of enthusiastic speakers, and has happily made contact this year with the French cultural office in New Haven. The Geneaology group has had some meetings drawing an interested group. Movie Matinees continues to attract crowds to their showings of historic films at the Blackstone Library. The screenings are preceded by brief informative talks, and followed by audience discussion.

Art Afficionados and Travel Gourmet continue to provide interesting opportunities to explore culture and cuisine locally and statewide. Scrabble players have been meeting one Sunday evening of each month, and the Music group has chosen events to attend every month. Bird Watching, Book Circle, Golf, Luncheon Gourmet, Needlers and Tennis continue with faithful members.
