Lunch and Learn
At 12 noon on Tuesday, March 25, YUWO will welcome Anne Demchak to speak to Lunch and Learn at the Yale Visitor Center on Elm Street. Ms. Demchak is one of a very few women in upper management at Stop and Shop. She works out of the Whalley Avenue Stop and Shop which serves both the Yale community and the inner city of New Haven. Her talk, “You’ve Come a Long Way, Baby {women}” will examine the recent roles of women in management by drawing upon her own experiences and expertise.

President’s Letter

We are going to be very busy this spring! This newsletter contains three registration forms; please be aware of the events’ dates and the closing dates for the registrations.

Dody Gall has planned a Museum Excursion to the museums in Springfield, MA, where a special exhibit, “Fakes and Forgers in the Art World” is available. This tour is scheduled for Thursday, March 27. An article with details is featured above. The reservation form shares the last page.

The China Study Series begins on Wednesday, April 2, at the Conference Center on Yale’s West Campus. Guests are welcome. Registration is on last page. More details in February newsletter.

Stephanie Jatlow and Marion Russell are busy planning the Annual Luncheon and Scholarship Awards meeting to be held on Thursday, May 8, at the New Haven Country Club. The reservation form with menu choices and speaker details is enclosed in this newsletter.

Enjoy!

MAKING SENSE of ART – Art Aficionados New Program
Interest in our new program “Making Sense of Art” was very encouraging. We were fortunate to get a time slot from the Yale Center for British Art which matches the preferred day indicated by most women. Participants must make every effort to attend all three sessions. The meetings are set for Tuesdays from 1 to 2pm on February 18, March 4 and March 18. Those interested in these three Tuesdays for “Making Sense of Art” please again email Docent Annecke Hathaway at anneke_hathaway@sbcglobal.net. Annecke, who is excited about launching this Art Experience, will respond to all interested with the more details.

GOLF CLINIC: In April we will have a clinic for YUWO members at the Yale Golf Course. All ability levels are welcome. We meet 4 times and work on different aspects of our game. The Yale women’s coach has been excellent and we look forward to the opportunity to work with her and to fine tune our game. Exact dates and cost will be forthcoming. Contact Pam Rackliffe 203 488 2667 or Barbara Kryger 203 288 1515.

Explore New Haven
On January 30, fifteen of us were led from floor to floor through the urban campus of Gateway Community College, an award winning CT Green Building, where students are offered courses leading to 100 associate degrees and certificates. Old and young are encouraged to study everything from nursing and health, through food service gourmet cooking to continuing education courses for professional development and personal enrichment. The early childhood students work with children in their day care center which has a playground squeezed between the Temple St. Garage and Gateway College (visible on George St.). The College Bistro (a cafeteria style eating place) is open daily to the public. For gourmet dining one can make reservations at Cafe Vincenzo, part of the Food Service Program. The glass walled library on the upper floors greets visitors to the city on Church St. For more information GatewayCT.edu.
