YUWO’s April Series

“Is There Any Such Thing As Privacy Anymore?” will feature five distinguished speakers who will explore different aspects of life in the age of NSA spying, email hacking and news reports via Twitter. The keynote speaker will be Jim Dwyer, the “about New York” co-columnist for The New York Times. He will tackle social media, from his new book “More Awesome Than Money: Four Boys and Their Heroic Quest to Save Your Privacy from Facebook”.

The two speakers on privacy will come from the medical realm. They are Stephen Latham, Director of Yale’s Interdisciplinary Center for Bioethics and Dr. Peter Herbert, Chief Medical Officer of Yale New Haven Hospital, whose concern is doctor-patient privacy

Consumer Privacy issues will be addressed by our fourth speaker Lauren Henry, Postdoctoral Associate in Law and the Knight Law and Media fellow at Yale Law School’s Information Society Project.

The fifth speaker (yet to be determined) will be an expert on the foreign policy implications of government spying.

President’s Letter - New Year, New Beginnings - Happy and Healthy 2015 to all of you.

The YUWO Board held its first meeting of the year on January 12. Exciting plans for the second half of the YUWO year were discussed as well as two new activities still in the planning stages. Cathy Burgard, Activities Chair, is developing two courses because YUWO members have indicated an interest. The first is an evening film group. Cathy is seeking venues and discussion leaders. The second is a “hands on” painting class to learn both the basis and the production of scientific illustrations. Dorothy Petrochko, President of the Connecticut Natural Science Illustrators, would teach this course, using models from the Peabody Collection at Yale’s West Campus. Details will follow in the March Newsletter.

Plans for the 50th Anniversary are underway. If you are interested in joining the 50th Committee please contact: Annmarie Lindskog, (203-397-0152) CWLind@aol.com, or Marion Russell, (203-288-8835) elrussell@snet.net

YUWO French Group Gathers for A Holiday Party

Many Activity Groups gathered to celebrate the season. The YUWO French speakers met for lunch with a dessert of Bûche de Noël and meringue mushrooms. L to R Julie Crowder, Lyn Howe, Candance Skorupa (guest), Grethe Shepherd, Kim Adams and Mary-Jo Warren. The photographer was the Chair, Debbie St. Thomas. Cava, Julie’s Guide Dog, was under the table. We missed our two native speakers, Marie Kozak, from Nancy in northern France, and Yvonne Eicher, from Nice.
