YUWO Members Meet Trust Challenge!
Fund Is Now Over $55,000

Assistant Treasure, Nancy Rosenbaum, reports that the qualifying contributions to the Trust Fund, to date, are $4,285. With the matching grant this brings the donations in the Trust Fund this YUWO fiscal year to $7,785. A healthy Trust Fund ensures the perpetuity of the YUWO Scholarship Program because the principal remains intact while a portion of the interest is paid out for scholarships. In contrast, all donations to the Annual Scholarship Fund will eventually paid out in scholarships. Donations to the Annual Fund this year are $2441.50.

REMINDER-RENEW

The YUWO Membership Directory and “monthly” newsletter will be sent in late November only to paid YUWO members. Uncertain of your status? Check with Peggy Atherton.

Lunch And Learn

At noon, on Tuesday, November 18, Professor Paula Kavathas, PHD, Professor of Laboratory Medicine and President of the Women's Faculty Forum (WFF) will be the guest speaker. The Yale WFF was established in 2001 to highlight the importance of Women Faculty at the University and foster gender equality through initiatives, research and innovative programs. Professor Kavathas will discuss activities of the Forum currently underway at the University. Information? call Stephanie Jatlow at 203-389-2044.

1965 A Founding Year!
Both Goodspeed and LWT are celebrating their 50th anniversaries. Report a 50th to Stephanie or Annemarie and a $25 contribution will be made in your honor to the Trust Fund. Your name (with your permission) will be listed in next Newsletter.

President’s Letter

YUWO’s 50th Year is well underway. Book groups have met and their members are voraciously reading; Needlers are knitting, film goers are making their way to West Campus; and Newcomers have met at an event hosted by Mary Jane Miller and Marion Winkelman. Members have also had the opportunity to tour Amistad Academy. Memories of our first 25 years have been rekindled by the film at our first “Lunch and Learn.” Be sure to sign up for the November British Art Gallery tour and November 5 bus trip to the MFA. Arrangements for our 50th Gala Luncheon are underway. More details will be available in our next newsletter.

Explore New Haven:

Come join us on Thursday, November 6 at 9:30 am to hear about the final plans for the I-95 bridge interchange. The DOT office is on the south side of Chapel at the intersection of Hamilton and Chapel Streets. A large parking lot lies behind a tall fence just west of the building. We will be shown diagrams and maps and then board a bus to take us to a location where we can see what's happening now and what is planned for the next steps toward completion. (A rain date is scheduled for a week later – Thursday, November 13 at 9:30 am.) Any questions? Call or email Anne Schenck: (203-787-3705) annefschenck@aol.com

Art Aficionados

On Wednesday, November 12 at noon YUWO members will have a traditional guided tour of "Sculpture Victorious" conducted by James Wilson one of the YCBA docents. Please meet at the British Art Center Entrance Court. The number of participants will be limited because the exhibition has many closely packed pieces of Art. Please contact Anneke Hathaway to make a reservation for this tour. anneke_hathaway@sbcglobal.net, (203-752-0460) or Diane McGuire (203-488-4385)

Visit to Amistad Academy Elementary and Middle School

On Friday, October 3rd, a group of about 15 early rising YUWO members joined a larger group of visitors to see first hand the hardworking and amazing scholars at New Haven's Amistad Academy Elementary and Middle School. Yale’s own Dacia Toll, YLS ‘99, co-founder and co-CEO of the Achievement First Charter Schools wowed us with her knowledge, enthusiasm, fierce commitment, and success in closing the achievement gap. If you missed the YUWO group tour, the next general open house for visitors will be Friday, November 14, 130 Edgewood Avenue at 7:45am sharp. (Report from Emly McDiarmid, Newcomer13/14, who is assisting Anne Schenck with the Explore New Haven planning this year.)
